Voting instructions

At the General Meeting, the proxy representative shall exercise the voting rights of the shareholder granting the authorization on each of the items on the agenda of the General Meeting as indicated with a cross (X) below.

- The option “For” or “Yes” means that the shareholder is in favor of approving the proposal.
- The option “Against” or “No” means that the shareholder objects to the acceptance of the proposal. By voting in advance, it is not possible to submit a counterproposal to the meeting or demand that a voting is conducted.
- The option “Abstain” means giving an empty vote and that that the shareholder’s shares are represented at the meeting with regard to the item in question, but they are not counted as votes in favor or against the proposal.
- The option “Not voted” means that the shareholder’s shares will be removed from the number of shares represented at the meeting with regard to the item in question and will not be voted in favor of any option.

The difference between the options “Abstain” and “Not voted” is relevant in situations where the resolution must receive a specified share of both cast votes and shares represented at the meeting. This is the case, for example, where a decision must be taken by a qualified majority (agenda items 17 and 18). Shareholders should be aware of this, especially if voting against the proposal is not their intention.

The shareholder’s shares are not considered as shares represented at the General Meeting and not counted as cast votes with regard to a certain agenda item if;

- no voting instructions have been indicated,
- there is more than one voting instruction on the same item, or
- other text or markings than a cross (X) have been used to indicate a voting instruction.

In a situation where a shareholder has voted in advance more than once via more than one voting channel, for example, both electronically via the company’s website and by using this proxy form and voting instructions, or more than once via the same voting channel, the votes dated most recently will prevail. If the forms are dated with same date, the votes that Innovatics Oy has received most recently will prevail.

Unless otherwise stated by the shareholder, the given voting instructions are assumed to concern all shares held by the shareholder.
